CHEF JOSE GARCES ANNOUNCES HIS NEW LUNCH MENU AT CHIFA

PHILADELPHIA, PA – On Monday, March 30, Latin superstar Chef Jose Garces introduced an exciting lunch menu at his newest restaurant, Chifa (707 Chestnut Street, 215-925-5555). A Latin-Asian restaurant named after the Peruvian restaurants of the same name, Chifa’s lunch menu offers a convenient and affordable way for fans and first-timers to experience the restaurant.

“The cuisine at Chifa is enormously diverse, which makes it appropriate for any time of day,” says Chef Garces. “Our new lunch menu is a celebration of fresh flavors and fascinating preparations that can be enjoyed slowly, as a chef’s tasting menu, or as our Hiram Bingham Express, for those whose lunch hour is more limited.”

Chifa’s Hiram Bingham Express is a two-course meal, including a non-alcoholic beverage, comprised of one first- and one second-course option from the lunch menu for just $18. Chef Garces also offers guests the opportunity to relax and allow him to hand-select their meal at his discretion with a $25 Chef’s Tasting Menu. All lunch items are also available a la carte.

Menu items include: Duck Wonton Soup, duck wontons with ‘Peking’ broth and sliced muscovy duck breast; Chef Garces’ signature Ecuadorian Ceviche, fresh shrimp with yellow tomato gel, avocado and crispy favas; Lomo Saltado, seared beef tenderloin with potatoes and stir-fried vegetables; and Red Curry Del General, jasmine rice with coconut, king crab, machas, tofu and eggplant. A la carte menu items range in price from $7 to $15.

Born in Chicago to Ecuadorian parents, Chef Jose Garces is the owner of three more of Philadelphia’s most successful restaurants: Amada (217-219 Chestnut Street, 215-625-2450), Tinto (114 South 20th Street, 215-665-9150) and Distrito (3945 Chestnut Street, 215-222-1657).
